

PITCH: How a doctor practices faith while practicing medicine.

In this interview, you'll get a perspective on what it means to be a Christian physician and how faith intersects with our health.

Dr. Charles Page has practiced surgery in rural Texas for over 20 years, training at Baylor College of Medicine under pioneer heart surgeon, Michael E. DeBakey. Dr. Chuck is an author, speaker, father of five kids and the founder of Spoonful of Courage, a Christian ministry aimed at inspiring people with hope and faith—in small doses.

Q: Give us your perspective on what it means to be a Christian Doctor?

Q: How does living out your faith as a physician differ from other occupations in the workplace?

Q: Explain how your faith works out in the day-to-day aspects of your practice?

Q: Give us your take on sickness and suffering?

Q: How do you approach sharing your faith in the context of practicing medicine?

Q: How do we (people in the marketplace) build this kind of trusting relationship with others?

Q: Can you give us any personal examples of how this works out in your day-to-day practice?

Q: What distinguishes a Christian Doctor from those who are agnostic or atheists?

Q: It sounds like you've had some bad experiences? Would you mind sharing some negative ones?

Q: When you have a bad outcome in surgery, how does that make you feel?

Q: How do you respond when you are faced with these situations? When everyone's losing their head and blaming it on you?

Q: What's the big picture on of the big life lessons, you've gleaned from practicing for two decades?

Q. Dr. Chuck how can people connect with you?

A: I'm working on a new book which gives a framework for health. It's about ordering your health using the BE. THINK. DO approach, so keep in touch by texting spoonful to 66866. We've got a free ebook of inspirational stories for you which emphasizes the impact faith makes in a health crisis.

Check out spoonfulofcourage.com. There, we have lots of free resources to encourage you. You can sign up for updates by texting spoonful to 66866. We have devotions, videos, and interviews with experts. I mentioned the zero/hero/victim way of approaching life. We've got some links for a free overview of these equations and principles.

Host can offer free ebook: <https://books2read.com/u/b5wqXO>

Free download of videos discussing equation book: AUDIOBOOK OR FREE VIDEOS \(geni.us\)

Or videos over reasons why thinking people believe in God: Irreducible Complexity \(oppyo.co\)